

I just heard Michael Kopps explaining the need to inform the public about the June review re: broadcast ownership. I am not in favor of changing the rules at this time. I do not want the corporations to take over our media. NPR is already being shoved off the airwaves: they need protection. If fostering diversity and competition is your goal, as you state, do not allow further corporate takeover by changing the rules.